Annex A Explanatory Material

Annex A is not a part of the requirements of this NFPA document but is included for informational purposes only. This annex contains explanatory material, numbered to correspond with the applicable text paragraphs.

A.1.1 General Properties of LP-Gas. Liquefied petroleum gases (LP-Gases), as defined in this code (see 3.3.37), are gases at normal room temperature and atmospheric pressure. They liquefy under moderate pressure and readily vaporize upon release of the pressure. It is this property that permits transportation and storage of LP-Gases in concentrated liquid form, although they normally are used in vapor form.

For additional information on other properties of LP-Gases, see Annex E.

Federal Regulations. Regulations of the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) are referenced throughout this code. Prior to April 1, 1967, these regulations were promulgated by the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC). The Federal Hazardous Substances Act (15 U.S.C. 1991) requires cautionary labeling of refillable cylinders of liquefied petroleum gases distributed for consumer use. They are typically 40 lb (18 kg) and less and are used with outdoor cooking appliances, portable lamps, camp stoves, and heaters. The Federal Hazardous Substances Act is administered by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission under regulations codified at 16 CFR 1500. Commercial Practices, Chapter 11, "Consumer Product Safety Commission."

A.1.3.1(4) For further information on the storage and handling of LP-Gas at natural gas processing plants, refineries, and petrochemical plants, see API 2510, Design and Construction of LP-Gas Installations.

A.1.3.2(5) For information on the use of LP-Gas with oxygen, see NFPA 51, Standard for the Design and Installation of Oxygen-Fuel Gas Systems for Welding, Cutting, and Allied Processes, and ANSI Z49.1, Safety in Welding, Cutting, and Allied Processes.

A.1.3.2(6) Several types of LP-Gas systems are not covered by NFPA 54, National Fuel Gas Code, as noted. These include, but are not restricted to, most portable applications: many farm installations: vaporization, mixing, and gas manufacturing; temporary systems, for example, in construction; and systems on vehicles.

A.1.3.2(8) For information on the use of LP-Gas in vessels, see NFPA 502, Fire Protection Standard for Pipelines and Commercial Motor Craft.
